EAMDA YOUTH CAMP – CROATIA

Invitation

Dear friends we are pleased to invite you to beautiful and sunny Croatia to be part of EAMDA YOUTH CAMP 2013. - the seven-day Camp for young people with neuromuscular diseases in Hotel "Varaždin" in Selce, Croatia from 1st to 8th July 2013

Town of Selce

The Croatian coast has its jewels. One of the loveliest is Selce - a coastal town with a 110 year tourism tradition situated 2 km on south from Crikvenica.

Once a town of fisherman and stonemasons, over the past century. Selce has developed into an attractive tourism destination. Selce is situated on a picturesque coastline, near Crikvenica and only 35 kilometres south of Rijeka one of the most diverse and beautiful parts of the Adriatic coast.

The mild climate, with over 2500 hours of sunshine per year, an average summer temperature of 25C and a mean annual temperature of 14C allows for a pleasant vacation all year round. The clean air and crystal clear sea, with a mean summer water temperature of 23C and a bathing season from May to October, modernly equipped which have been flying the European blue flag for several years, the dive centre with its diving school, and the many possibilities for water sports are sure to make your summer a lot of fun.

The waterfront, diverse cultural, entertainment and sports events (folklore, concerts, art exhibitions, show programs, fishermen's night, sport fishing and more) will make your stay in Selce unforgettable. Thanks to the climate, Selce is also well known as a rehabilitation centre for treating cardiovascular, rheumatic and respiratory illnesses, and includes a physical therapy and rehabilitation centre (Therme Selce).

Guest accommodation is available in 5 hotels, 2 autocamps, family bad and breakfasts and large number of rooms and apartments in private homes. Also at the guests disposal are numerous restaurants, taverns, pizzerias, bistros, cafes and ice cream parlours, souvenir shops, banks, a post office, medical clinic, pharmacy, boat moor, tennis courts, mini golf, bocce ball courts, handball courts and more.

Selce offers a great deal, and more! The hospitality of the locals will remain engrained in your memory.
